First Selectwoman's Corner

Winter 2018 started out very cold, but has not been too bad in terms of storms, at least so far. Even with that, Public Works crews have been out on overtime due to the timing of the storms, keeping our roads in good shape for our residents. As always, we thank them for their diligence and extra hours, and they appreciate the many positive comments we have received about the job they do.

The Annual Town Meeting was held on January 22, 2018 at 7:30 pm in the Meeting Hall of Town Hall. Roderick M. White was named Citizen of the Year, and for good reason. A founding member of the Harbor Management Commission, he served as Chair from 1988 to 1994, and was elected Registrar of Voters from 1993 to 2004. In addition, he was elected for two terms to the Regional District 18 Board of Education, serving from 1997 to 2005. Rod was our Town's representative to the Southeastern Tourism District for many years, and currently serves on the Board of Assessment Appeals, a position to which he was first elected in 2007. Born and raised in Springfield, Massachusetts, Rod graduated from the Coast Guard Academy in 1950, and spent the next quarter of a century making his mark in the Coast Guard. A faculty member from 1969 to 1974, he served as Dean of Academics from 1974 to 1983. In 1969, he was named the outstanding Naval Engineer of the year, receiving the prestigious Gold Medal from the American Society of Naval Engineers. His Gold Medal citation refers to "his exceptional analytical skills and technical competence... and significant contributions in the advancement of icebreaker design...." It was Rod's "White Bow" design that made it possible for the SS Manhattan to make the first successful transit of the Northwest Passage by a commercial vessel. Rod White, with his wife Judy by his side, was full of pride at receiving this prestigious Citizen of the Year Award.

In addition, Board of Finance Chair Andy Russell reviewed the FY 2017 Annual Report, which was distributed to everyone. FY 2017 closed on a good note, with some money left over, and without using the $600,000 from the surplus that was budgeted. Our surplus remains strong, at over 24%, which our auditors agree is an asset for a community that is bordered on two sides by water. The voters unanimously accepted the Annual Town Report as presented with very few questions. At the same meeting, the voters also approved an additional $200,000 for road overlay projects, keeping us on track in maintaining our roads.

The LED Light conversion project is completed, and we have already seen a drastic reduction in our electric bills. In November, we paid over $3,000 for electricity for our street lights, and since then, our highest bill was $950.00. We also now have a maintenance contract for all of our street lights, which reduces our overhead on maintenance as well. This was a project that was well worth funding, as we will pay for it in savings in less than three years.

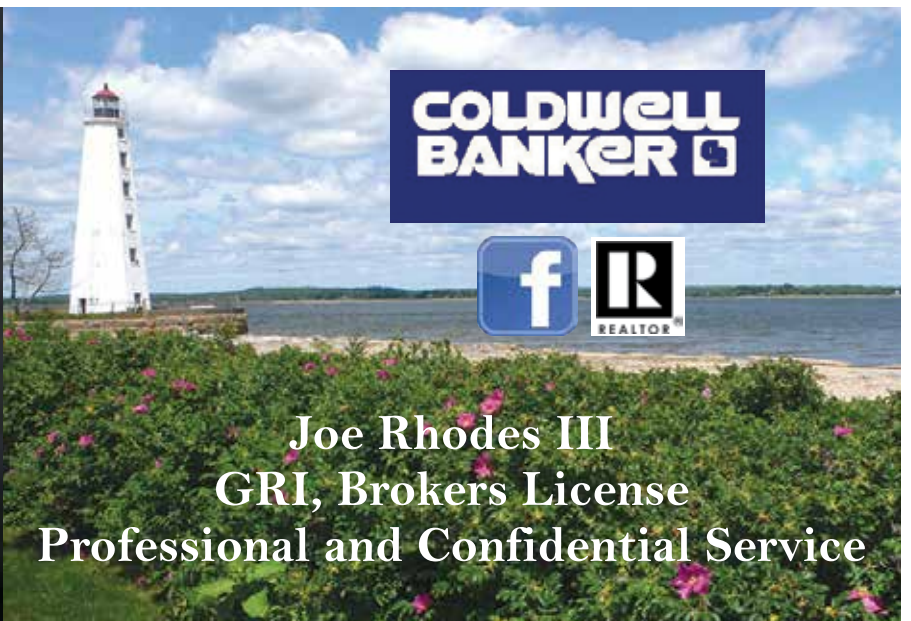

The Police Services Options Committee has been appointed by the Board of Selectmen and will begin discussions about collaboration with East Lyme, and possibly other options for efficiency in our police services. Although the committee will look at options, it is only sensible that we plan for the summer increase in activity based on the current model of policing. For that reason, our proposed budget includes funding for additional part time municipal and state trooper overtime during the busy summer months. Last summer, with additional state trooper presence, we received positive feedback on the impact. We will continue to look for better ways to address the increased activity in our beach areas, so that summer in Old Lyme is a pleasant experience for all.

On February 5, 2018, the Board of Selectmen enthusiastically approved a resolution to take part in the SustainableCT initiative. The Connecticut Conference of Municipalities (CCM) has spent the last year researching this for towns and cities in Connecticut, and is “challenging” municipalities to complete action items to document our commitment to sustainability. For those communities that take part, a Sustainability Team is created to determine which actions have been completed, and which actions to undertake as goals to achieve points and awards. One action item that has already been completed is our conversion to LED street lights! So we are already on our way to reaching any goal that we set. If anyone is interested in being a member of our Sustainability Team, please reach out to us by emailing: selectmansoffice@oldlyme-ct.gov. You can find out more about this initiative by visiting the website at: www.sustainablect.org. We are very excited about the challenge and look forward to a bronze, or even a silver, award for our efforts. Awards will be acknowledged at the Annual CCM Conference in November.

The Town of Old Lyme has been well served for nearly 20 years by Old Lyme Sanitation (formerly Shoreline Sanitation), which has provided Solid Waste and Recycling curbside pickup. This is funded through our taxes. In June of 2019, the contract that we have with OL Sanitation will expire, and Gary Yuknat has informed us that he will retire. For that reason, we will be appointing a committee to develop the plan for services beginning in July of 2019. We have a lot of work to do to make sure that our services continue as seamlessly as possible during the transition. Stay tuned for more information to come.

The installation of the new Cross Lane Playground is virtually complete, with border fencing to be installed as the weather allows. If you have not seen it yet, you are in for quite a surprise. It is just beautiful and fits right into the wooded area, with natural wood posts and lots of climbing opportunities for kids. As promised, the playground is handicap accessible, complete with special surfacing to allow wheelchairs, walkers or other support equipment for those with special needs. A huge thanks goes to the Junior Women's Club members for their initiation of this project and partial funding of it. In addition, the Public Works crew assisted in much of the preparation of the area, and Al Bond took care of the heavier excavation, providing much more service than contracted! Once you see it, I know that you'll agree that this playground will provide hours of joy for so many of our children and families. We are planning a special Grand Opening celebration of the playground on April 26, 2018 at 4 pm, complete with pizza and fun, with a rain date of April 27, 2018, at 4 pm. Please mark your calendars so you can join the festivities as we officially declare the playground open for fun!

After years of discussion, the Board of Selectmen has approved a Proposed Blight Ordinance at its January 16th Selectman's meeting and has requested comments and questions on the proposal. In addition, an informational meeting was held on February 12, 2018, giving interested residents an opportunity to voice their opinions about the proposed ordinance. About 30 people attended the meeting, some expressing concern about the breadth of authority that the ordinance allows, others praising the effort and offering encouragement to pass the ordinance. It is likely that some changes will be made based on the comments, with a follow up presentation to be scheduled. As indicated at the initial meeting, the BOS want to allow citizens and homeowners the opportunity to understand the ordinance and provide input on concerns and suggested changes to the proposal. If the proposed ordinance appears to be supported, it would be recommended to a town meeting for approval. Please stay informed about this proposal and be sure to share your thoughts about whether this should be implemented in our community. You can view the proposed ordinance on the town website at: www.oldlyme-ct.gov, click on Boards/Commissions, Elected Boards, and Board of Selectmen. There is a link to the Proposed Blight Ordinance under "Additional Links:" Please feel free to share your thoughts by emailing: selectmansoffice@oldlyme-ct.gov.

This year, we are saying goodbye to a few terrific colleagues who have worked at Town Hall for many years. On December 21st, we wished Ruth Roach a fond farewell, as she made the difficult decision to retire as of January, 2018. Ruth has worked in our Tax Office as Assistant for many years, moving over as our Technology Coordinator for the past several years. In addition, Eileen Coffee, continued on page 6 our beloved Town Clerk, retired as of January 2, 2018, and we had a touching luncheon to honor her many years serving the Town of Old Lyme, first as Asst. Town Clerk and as our Town Clerk since 2009. Her assistant for many years, Vicki Urbowicz, now serves as our Town Clerk, along with her new assistant, Courtney Joy. We are pleased to welcome both of them to their new position. Finally, our Building Official John Flower gave us notice of his retirement in June of 2018! John has been with the Town of Old Lyme since 1999, initially serving as Asst. Building Official AND Asst. Sanitarian. He became our full time Building Official in 2012, and has served with integrity and fairness since that time. John will be sorely missed, but he has agreed to assist in hiring a qualified replacement. We wish Ruth, Eileen and John good health, good times, and relaxation in their retirement, and thank them for their service to Old Lyme.

On February 11, 2018, Jeff Andersen, the longtime Director of the Florence Griswold Museum, was honored as he retires - after 41 years! Since he began working with the museum in 1976, the Florence Griswold Museum has grown from a small seasonal house museum where he was the only staff member to a nationally recognized center for American art and a leading CT cultural attraction, with 20 staff members and 80,000+ visitors annually. Jeff has been a visionary leader whose thoughtful devotion to excellence and whose tireless advocacy for the museum and its uniquely Connecticut story has transformed the Florence Griswold Museum into one of the state's most important and beloved cultural destinations. The Board of Selectmen joined others in praise for Jeff Andersen's accomplishments, and proclaimed February 11, 2018 Jeff Andersen Day in the Town of Old Lyme. Best wishes to Jeff Andersen for a well deserved retirement, and thank you for all you have done for our community!

Our budget season is in full swing - the Board of Finance continues to meet weekly to review all requests for FY 2019 budget. With less revenue anticipated from the State of CT, it will be a challenging budget, but they are up to the task. The Town Budget Hearing is scheduled for Monday, April 16th at 7:30 pm at Town Hall, and the Town Budget Meeting is scheduled for Monday, May 21st at 7:30 pm in the Lyme Old Lyme Middle School Auditorium. Mark these dates on your calendar and keep informed about the budget by checking the BOF minutes on the website. While you are there, don't forget to subscribe to News and Announcements to receive automatic emails!

The Board of Selectmen and I wish you a wonderful spring season, and don't forget to take time to smell the roses, or any of the flowers in bloom this spring!

Bonnie Reemsnider, First Selectwoman

Lyme-Old Lyme Chamber of Commerce

LOLCC Hosts Active Program of Events and Meetings Throughout the Spring - Join Us!

The Lyme-Old Lyme Chamber meets on the third Wednesday of each month to offer the opportunity for business professionals to network with each other and discuss ideas related to the economic vitality of our towns. Please join us at any or all of these Business

After Hours meetings that offer free admission. There are also four dinner meetings during the year for which a nominal charge is made.

Our next gathering will be a dinner meeting on March 21 at Stella's Restaurant & Pizzeria. All are welcome. We will network over cocktails and appetizers from 6 to 7 pm and then enjoy a three-course meal. The Mentoring Corps for Community Development will be our guest speakers and explain the activities of the group and also talk about the organ donor program that they support. The price for the meal is $25 and you can register on the Chamber website at: VisitOldLyme.com while also making your entrée selection.

Our April 18 meeting will be a Business After Hours event at a location to be determined and in May we will have both a lunchtime meeting on May 16 at the Old Lyme Country Club (again co-sponsored with Community Connections) and a Business After Hours at The Carousel Shop at Sound View later in the month.

Our January meeting saw two firsts - it was our first lunchtime meeting for quite a while and also, we co-hosted with Community Connections at the Old Lyme Country Club. We had an excellent speaker, Kayla Hedman of Miranda Creative Inc. and Memoir Hub LLC, who discussed Media Strategies to Boost Your Organization's Marketing in 2018. More than 40 people attended and enjoyed an excellent lunch. Feedback has been overwhelmingly positive and we also generated some new members from the event.

We hosted a Business Breakfast in February at Lyme-Old Lyme High School. Some 35 people attended along with a dozen LOLHS students from Joanne Hedwall's law and accounting classes and listened to State Sen. Paul Formica, State Rep. Devin Carney, Old Lyme First Selectwoman Bonnie Reemsnyder and Lyme Selectman John Kiker discuss Behind the Headlines: What's Happening in Our Towns and State? A delicious breakfast preceded the discussion and a lively Q & A session followed. Many thanks to

New Administrative Team Creates Culture of Connection at Lyme-Old Lyme Middle School

"There's something about these two ..." says Lyme-Old Lyme Middle School Technical Education teacher Jennifer Costigan.

She is referring to Middle School Principal Mark Ambruso and Assistant Principal Noah Ventola, both of whom started in their positions July 1 last year after gaining extensive teaching and administrative experience in other Connecticut schools. Since their arrival, they have been actively working towards their shared vision of a school at which each student really feels connected and they have instigated many changes with that aim in mind. Stressing that they are building on the "solid ground" established by the previous administration, Ambruso explains their goal is to create a "positive community," in which they as administrators know "something about everyone," beyond just a name.

Lyme-Old Lyme Middle School Principal Mark Ambruso (left) and Assistant Principal Noah Ventola meet regularly to review progress on newly-implemented programs.

One of the key methods he and Ventola are using to fulfill this mission is "being visible [to the students] all the time - at events, lunches, in classes." But it's not simply visibility, Ambruso notes. "It's approachability," combined with "trying to find ways to engage every kid." Continuing that theme of engagement, Ventola points out that they plan on moving the in-school advisory program to one in which students are grouped around topics of common interest, such as yoga, knitting, or zentangling, thus sparking new relationships.

The administrators are considering adding recess back into the school day next year - a popular proposal that is also based on a wealth of research. Ambruso comments, "Middle school students need to vent their energy" and giving that "unstructured time" unquestionably yields direct results in the classroom. Other changes the duo have implemented include improving communication between home and school, adding new after-school activities like ping-pong, and a quarterly recognition ceremony for students.

The aim in all these changes, says Ambruso, is "to create a safe and welcoming environment, introducing the students to people they trust - and then the learning can begin." He adds, "We want to find that balance between academic rigor and preparing them for the next level," while integrating it with "all the social, emotional and wellness issues” that middle schoolers are experiencing. Early reports indicate Ambruso and Ventola are achieving significant success. Lyme-Old Lyme Schools Superintendent Ian Neviasser comments, “There’s an air of positivity in the building” and Costigan agrees, “These guys genuinely want to be here. They’re so supportive, they listen, and they’re always smiling.” But perhaps the greatest praise comes from 12-year-old Leland Hine, who is in sixth grade and says, “I really like being here.

Mr. Ambroso and Mr. Ventola are very nice. They’re our principals ... but they’re still friendly.”

LOL Education Foundation 6th Annual Trivia Bee Coming Up

Question: What is the LOL Education Foundation’s Trivia Bee, 7:00 pm, March 16, 2018, at the LOL Middle School?
Answer: A great way to shake off the end of winter blues, have fun with friends, family, and neighbors, while supporting a great cause.

The 2018 Trivia Bee is a unique opportunity to support LOEF while having a terrific time. The LOLHS show choir, Amped UP!, will entertain the crowd in-between rounds of the competition. Teams of four will compete for the Golden Bee Trophy. Last year, students, local business owners, teachers, and volunteer firefighters were among those who formed teams for the competition. So, brush up on your trivia knowledge, get together with some friends or colleagues and register your team for the Bee! And, if you are interested in sponsoring a team, it’s not too late. Just go the LOEF website and sign up. Admission to the Trivia Bee is free, and there will be chances for audience members to win prizes. All funds raised at the Trivia Bee will be returned to the community in the form of grants to LOL schools and other local non-profit organizations. Whether as a team demonstrating your far flung trivia knowledge or as a member of the audience, we hope to see you on March 16 at the LOEF Trivia Bee!

The LOLEF is a charitable organization that provides financial support for educational projects, enrichment programs and innovative initiatives not typically funded by Regional District 18 or other governmental entities. LOEF has awarded grants for educational initiatives benefiting our youngest students to our senior citizens. You can find out more about the grants that have been awarded, as well as how to apply for a grant, at: www.loef.org.

9 Town Transit Seeks Help Preventing Funding Cuts

For decades, transportation programs in Connecticut have been funded by a tax on gasoline and diesel fuels that go into the Special Transportation Fund. The 25 cent gas tax has not changed since 2000, while vehicles have become more fuel efficient, all resulting in a decrease in revenues.

Without action from the legislature, the Connecticut Department of Transportation warns that there will not be enough funding coming into the Special Transportation

Fund to cover the expenses of the state's transportation system. As a result, 9 Town Transit would see a 15% reduction in funding in 2018 and a 50% reduction of funding in 2019. 9 Town Transit is warning that a 15% reduction of state funding beginning July 1, 2018 would result in changes such as fare increases, elimination or reduction of bus routes and reduced Dial-A-Ride service. A 50% reduction of state funding beginning July 1, 2019 would result in changes such as additional fare increases, elimination of most bus routes, elimination of Saturday service and elimination of Dial-A-Ride service.

These changes would have a significant impact on the more than 100,000 trips made each year on these services. Hundreds of area residents would be stranded, and unable to get to work, school and medical appointments. More information about the possible service reductions and ways to help prevent the funding cuts can be found at: www.9towntransit.com/fundtransit.

Give Your Time to Help Connecticut Children & Families

Child & Family Agency's Lyme/Old Lyme Auxiliary is a group of dedicated volunteers whose mission is to support the work of Child & Family Agency of Southeastern Connecticut, a private, nonprofit organization that nurtures children and families to develop their strengths through its service, partnership, and advocacy. With offices in New London, Essex, and Groton, Child & Family Agency is the largest nonprofit children's service provider in southeastern Connecticut; last year over 17,000 children and their families in 79 towns received services from the Agency.

The Lyme/Old Lyme Auxiliary is one of six such groups of volunteers who provide support to the agency through fundraising and other activities. In Lyme/Old Lyme this means the biennial Garden Tour and alternate-year events on the third weekend of June; the popular Holiday Cookie Walk and Polar Express each December; and Intake of donations for the Annual Sale every spring. Many of our members also work at the Annual Sale in New London (the largest and longest-running tag sale in New England), and some members volunteer their time at Agency sites, reading to children, assisting with activities, or offering organizational support.

NEW MEMBERS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME TO JOIN THE LYME/OLD LYME AUXILIARY!

Give as much time as your schedule allows. If you would like to learn more, please plan to attend our spring meeting on Wednesday, March 28, at 6:00 pm, taking place at the Hamburg Cove Yacht Club (13 Cove Road, Lyme). We will start with dinner, followed by the meeting at 7:00 pm. If you need a ride to the meeting, or if you are unable to attend but would like to join the auxiliary, email us at: cfa.lolauxiliary@gmail.com.

"Death is certain. Life is not." So begins this commonsensical, infinitely useful workbook that's aimed at helping your survivors handle the requisite legal and household affairs after your death. Author Lynn McPhelimy was inspired to write the book when her parents were both diagnosed with terminal cancer and her father said to her, "You know when I'm gone, I don't want the yard all dug up when you're looking for the septic tank. So here is this little map." It's a book that's not meant just for the elderly or the seriously ill, but for anyone who wants a handy reference with all the necessary "facts of life" in one spot.

Ledge Light Health District & Medical Reserve Corps Seek Volunteers

The Ledge Light Health District (LLHD) Medical Reserve Corps (MRC) is looking for medical and non-medical volunteers to join our district wide organization. Anyone 18 years and older who enjoys helping others is welcome to join. A national net-work of local volunteers with a mission to strengthen public health, the LLHD MRC has been active since 2007. If you got your H1N1 shot at Christ the King Church during the pandemic it was MRC volunteers, with LLHD staff, who greeted and gave you the vaccine.

Kris Magnussen, an Old Lyme resident and Ledge Light's public health nurse, credits her wonderful volunteers for the successful programs offered to help improve the health and build resilience in the area communities. Flu clinics, blood pressure and diabetes screenings, fall prevention home assessments and mass dispensing exercises are just some of the activities the MRC have been and continue to be busy with.

Seniors Standing Strong is a free in-home falls assessment service offered to seniors to help keep them safe in their home. Trained MRC volunteers will be happy to visit and make suggestions on how to prevent fall hazards. An appointment can be made by calling Kris Magnussen at: 860-448-4882.

LLHD MRC was the first unit in the country to form a Disaster Epi Strike Team, led by the LLHD Epidemiologist, Russ Melmed. In the event of a disaster, the Epi Strike Team would be dispatched to the affected area to find out the immediate needs of residents and act as a liaison between residents and their town emergency management officials. The unit is also trained to assist LLHD in outbreak investigations. MRC volunteers and Ledge Light Health District worked with the Old Lyme Visiting Nurse Association, Old Lyme Emergency Management and First Selectwoman Bonnie Reemsnyder to do a full-scale mass dispensing exercise with the critical infrastructure staff and seniors that was a great success.

The main mission of the MRC is to respond to public health emergencies such as pandemics, bio-terrorism or natural disasters. Training and exercises help the volunteers to stay ready to respond to any event that has the potential to affect people's health. MRC volunteers, EMTs Doug LoPresti and Colleen Atkinson of Old Lyme, have provided great training, Stop the Bleed, to MRC volunteers in the region. Volunteers are trained in CPR, First Aid, Triage, Incident Command and Medical Countermeasures dispensing. Please contact Kris Magnussen or Catherine Dragoo at: 860-48-4882 to learn more about joining!

High Hopes Annual Gala & Volunteer Open House

High Hopes - How SWEET it Is

Mark your calendar for the 2018 High Hopes Therapeutic Riding June Gala. The Annual Gala is one of Connecticut's premier social and fundraising events; gathering our supporters across Connecticut and beyond, for an evening of dining, dancing, and dedication to our mission.

This year's Event Chairs, Hannah Childs and Emily Jewett, have chosen the theme "How Sweet It Is" as a fun way to recognize this event's widely popular band "Sugar" and to represent the important work done at High Hopes. "Sugar" is a ten-piece band that has been playing together for 15 years. They carry a dedicated following and have played in some of the most prestigious venues in New England with a "huge repertoire from oldies to current music, and they are just soooo good!"

The gala will feature both a live and silent auction and a gourmet dinner. Invites will be mailed in April. If you would like High Hopes to add your family or your company to the invite list, continued on page 32

March 17, 2018 - High Hopes Volunteer Open House

Join High Hopes Therapeutic Riding Center on Saturday, March 17th to find out more about volunteering at High Hopes. Watch a lesson, see a demonstration, ask questions and get answers and talk to one of our staff about a schedule that would suit your needs. From one hour a week upwards!

Without our volunteers' hard work and dedication, our goal - to bring the extraordinary benefits of therapeutic riding and equine activities to a wide range of individuals-would be no more than words on paper. There are many personal benefits to volunteering too. High Hopes provides a positive and supportive, non-judgmental environment where you can learn new skills, gain experience working with adults, children and horses, help build your resume, obtain references for school and work, and above all be part of a fun and rewarding altruistic experience.

There are some things we need from you. For many of our participants an equine assisted activity at High Hopes is a highlight of their week so they need your commitment and reliability. We need you to be willing to learn "the High Hopes way," to

Water Pollution Control Authority (WPCA) Updates

COASTAL WASTEWATER MANAGEMENT PLAN

Regarding the research into sewerage the area known as Sound View, the Environmental Impact Evaluation (EIE) has come back to the WPCA from CT DEEP for comments. Members of the WPCA have had time to read it and ask clarifying questions. We will be sending it back to CT DEEP and it will be published to the Monitor publication so that members of the public can make comments about plan. We will put a link to this website on the WPCA page of our Town website: www.oldlyme-ct.gov.

Following public comment, a record of decision will be developed to respond to the public comments. The record of decision goes back to CT DEEP and, at this point, it could direct Old Lyme to implement the wastewater management plan. This would lead to a town-wide public referendum.

INTER-MUNICIPAL AGREEMENT IMA

The inter-municipal waste transfer agreement is moving forward. Representatives from Old Colony Beach, Old Lyme Shores and Miami Beach in consultation with Selectwoman Reemsnyder and WPCA Chairman Prendergast have been negotiating an agreement with representatives of East Lyme, Waterford and New London for conveyance of wastewater to the New London treatment facility.

PUMP HOUSE LAND LEASE

The sewer pump-house lease agreement that leases public land so that adjacent neighborhoods can share in waste water pump costs is nearing completion and will soon be ready for the Selectman's office to present to the public for approval.

First Selectwoman Reemsnyder and WPCA Chairman Prendergast have been working to iron out the details of the lease agreement with representatives of Old Colony Beach, Old Lyme Shores, and Miami Beach. This agreement is vital to the public interest because it has the potential to save the Town millions of dollars.

ADDITIONAL TESTING

Regarding the area known as Hawk's Nest Beach, the ground water quality testing plan has been reviewed by CT DEEP and largely approved. The addition of a few more test wells is necessary to accurately evaluate the ground water quality of the Hawks Nest Beach area. The draft plan proposes adding 4 new wells to the existing 6 wells for a total of 10 testing sites. The WPCA is carefully reviewing the location of these wells to be sure that they will provide the most accurate determination of water quality for the HNB area. We anticipate that the additional wells will be installed and testing will begin this Spring.

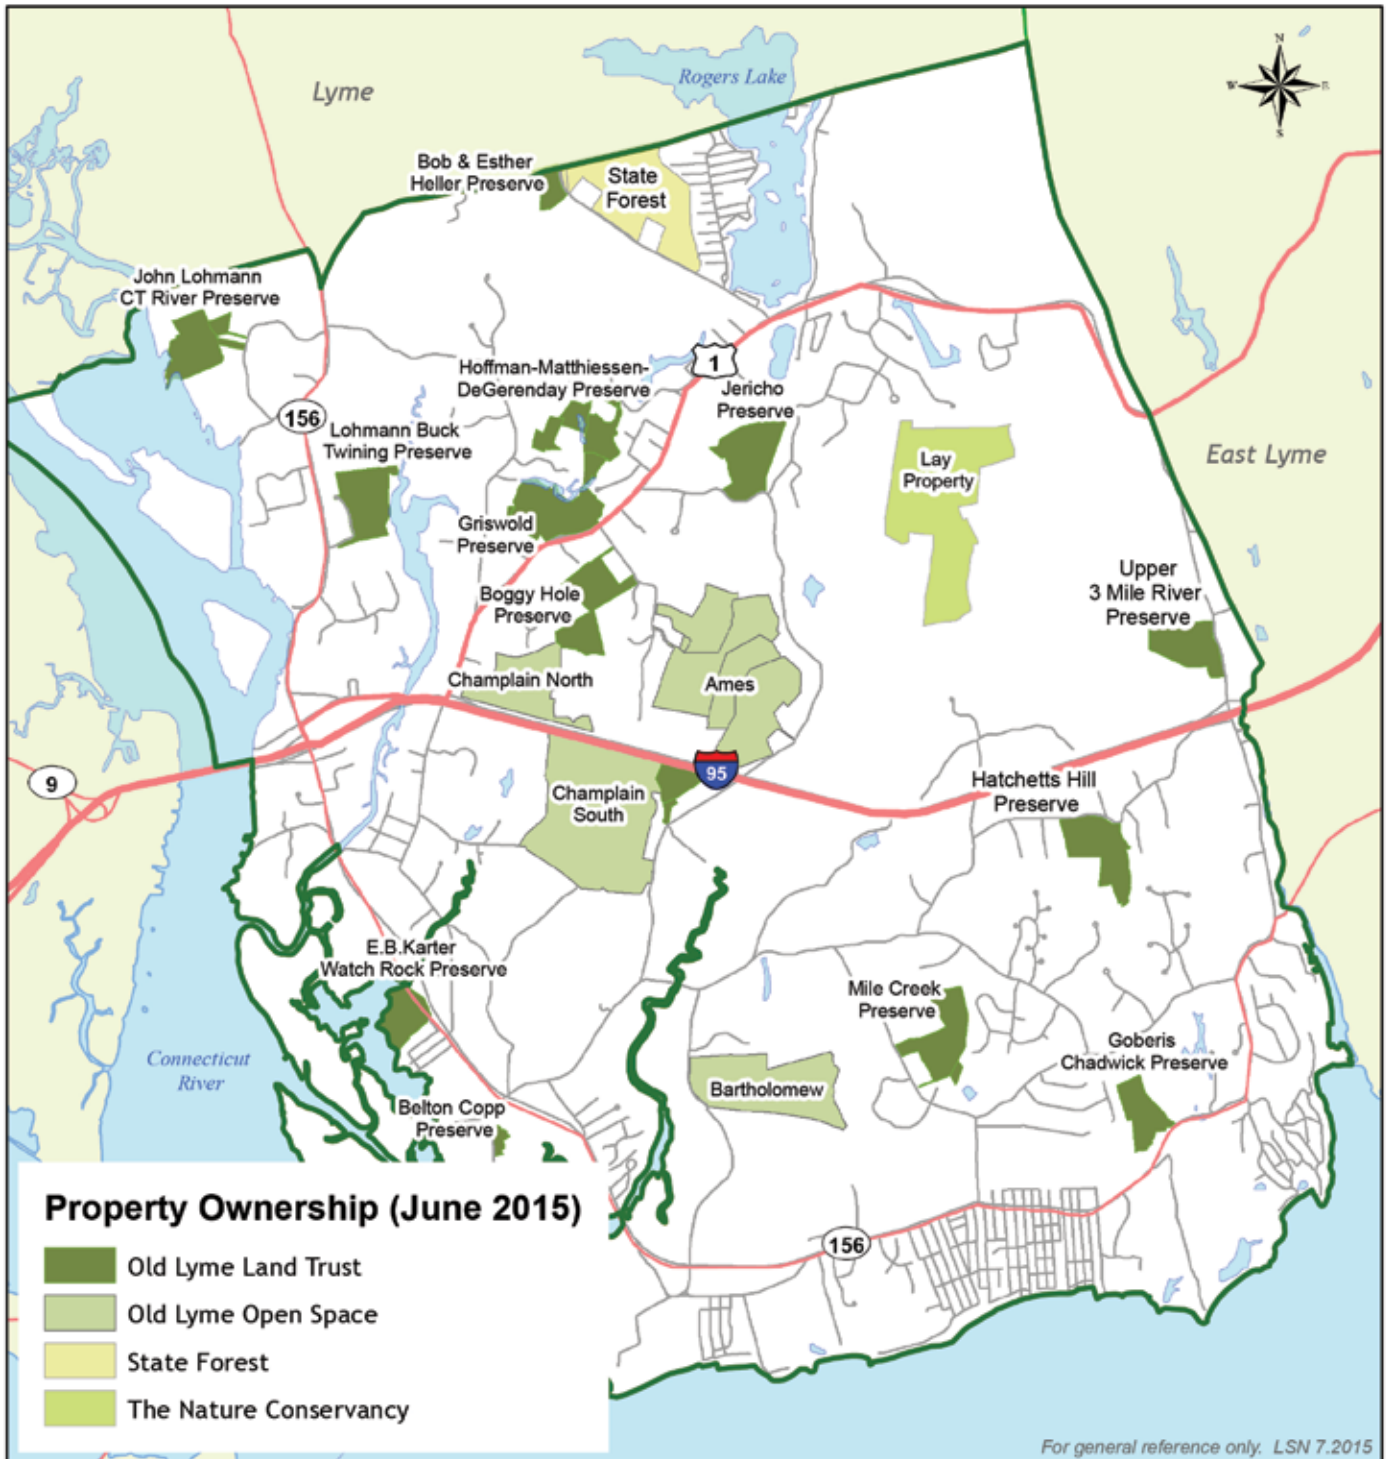

The WPCA meets at 7:30 pm on the second Tuesday of each month. Members of the public are always welcome to attend.

Duck River Garden Club

Christmas time for the Duck River Garden Club was enjoyed by many of our members.

We had a wonderful luncheon held at the Old Lyme Country Club. January followed with our annual Christmas Pot Luck dinner at the First Congregational Church of Old Lyme.

Soon, the DRGC members will be preparing for our Spring Flower Sale which is held on "Mother's Day" weekend. We will be notifying the public in the spring with all the necessary information. This is our major fundraiser each year and our money raised benefits the town of Old Lyme, it's residents and some surrounding towns.

Old Lyme Conservation Commission

On the roof of the First Congregational Church of Old Lyme are 136 solar panels which reduce the cost of electricity, as well as reduce the environmental footprint of the church.

The Old Lyme Conservation Commission encourages the Town of Old Lyme to become “cleaner” through supporting pollinators, eliminating lawn pesticides, and utilizing renewable energy. The First Congregational Church of Old Lyme takes a leadership role in “Going Solar.”

An iconic center of Old Lyme, the church began efforts in 2014, urged by the church’s Committee for the Environment. The church’s efforts included input from solar-based non-profit organizations, financial and engineering experts, and installer Waldo Renewable of Old Lyme.

136 panels were installed on the roof of the church parish house. At peak, they can generate 44 KW of electricity. Even through this winter’s heavy winds, they continued to function, providing a flow of renewable energy and financial savings. Since start of generation in 2015, the church derived 37% of its energy from the panels, selling the unused energy generated by the panels back to the utility at retail price. Using the panels represents a 42% financial saving.

States Senior Minister of FCCOL, Reverend Steven Jungkeit: “Our effort is to demonstrate how any institution, family, or business can step up and take action. We are proud to be a part of a faith institution that cares about the world, our environment, and puts our faith into practice ecologically.”

The benefits of clean energy reduce the church’s electricity expenses as well as its carbon footprint.

View the video of Reverend Jungkeit atop the roof of the church, in front of the solar installation with installer Mark Waldo at: www.fccol.org.

Florence Griswold Museum

TWO EXHIBITIONS AND A CELEBRATION OF SUMMER AT THE FLORENCE GRISWOLD MUSEUM

“Handwritten letters are a performance on paper,” states Mary Savig, curator of manuscripts at the Smithsonian’s Archives of American Art and organizer of the exhibition Pen to Paper: Artists’ Handwritten Letters from the Smithsonian’s Archives of American Art. The Florence Griswold Museum is the only northeast venue for this traveling exhibition. On view through May 6, Savig’s selection reveals the beauty and intimacy of the craft of letter writing. From casually jotted notes to elaborately decorated epistles, Pen to Paper explores the handwriting of celebrated artists such as Alexander Calder, Mary Cassatt, Frederic Edwin Church, Thomas Eakins, Howard Finster, Jacob Lawrence, Robert Motherwell, Claes Oldenburg, Georgia O’Keeffe, Jackson Pollock, John Singer Sargent, James McNeill Whistler, and many others. To complement the Smithsonian’s collection, handwritten letters from the Museum’s archives form the exhibition, P.S.: Letters from the Lyme Art Colony. Paintings from the Florence Griswold Museum and works from private collections hang alongside selected artists’ letters.

From May 11 to September 16, the Museum presents Art and the New England Farm. Drawing on the agricultural heritage of Florence Griswold’s family estate and of the Lyme region and beyond, this exhibition examines the history and character of New England’s farms in works by artists from the 19th to the 21st century. The exhibition will examine the influential works of George Henry Durrie, whose depictions of the New England farmstead became iconic emblems of mid-19th century rural American life. Works by Ivan Olinsky, Thomas Nason, Martin Lewis, and Walker Evans will then map the transformation and decline of the New England farm into the 20th century with the pressures of urbanization and suburbanization. The exhibition will also make relevant connections to the struggles of the modern-day farmer with the inclusion of works by contemporary artists and photographers, including artist Judy Friday’s project on a year in the life of Lyme’s Tiffany Farms.

Recently given to the Museum by The Vincent Dowling Family Foundation in honor of Director Jeffrey Andersen, Childe Hassam’s Apple Trees in Bloom, Old Lyme (1904), depicts a view behind Florence Griswold’s boardinghouse, with the studio that Hassam liked to use on the edge of the orchard. Apple Trees has a scintillating quality that places it among the artist’s best work and is a testament to the creative spark Hassam felt in Old Lyme. The painting debuts in this spring’s exhibition, P.S.: Letters from the Lyme Art Colony.

The Museum’s annual GardenFest helps to kick off the garden season in Old Lyme. This ten-day (June 8-17) celebration of the site’s historic gardens features special events, family activities, and a wide variety of activities for all ages and interest levels. Most events are free with Museum admission. Check FlorenceGriswoldMuseum.org for information.

Checking Up on Your Financial “Vital Signs”

It can be helpful to think of your financial health like your doctor thinks of your physical health. Whether you go to your doctor for a check up or a specific problem, someone takes your vital signs - temperature, pulse, blood pressure, height and weight. The doctor can then evaluate your symptoms and your overall health in light of your current condition relative to historical data points. Even if you’re currently very healthy, comparing the vital signs and their trends over time can help spotlight things to watch more closely.

Checking your financial vital signs can follow a similar process.

FIRST: Determine your current position:

- What you earn
- What you own
- What insurance you have
- What you spend
- What you owe

SECOND: Ask questions to better understand your current situation

- Who depends on you, financially? (children, spouse or partner, parents, others)

- Do you have a 6 month emergency fund if you were unable to work?
- What happens if you’re disabled?
- What happens when you die?

Now you have the picture of where you are now. The next steps are diagnosing where you want to be and how to get there.

Major Preservation Project of American Impressionists' Original Gallery Underway

Removing old dilapidated shingles and rotted millwork on the west side of Cooper - Ferry gallery over studio.

LYME ART ASSOCIATION GETS EXTREME MAKEOVER

In 1914, the American Impressionist painters of Old Lyme formed an association and dreamed of building their own gallery to exhibit their work. For the sum of one dollar, Ms. Florence Griswold deeded a portion of her property to the artists; where, in 1921, the Lyme Art Association Gallery opened its doors. Sadly, nearly a century later, this landmark gallery had the same shingles, deteriorated and literally falling off the building, and rotted woodwork coming apart. There was simply no choice; the three Rs - repair, restoration, and renovation - had to begin.

But makeovers take money, and so the Lyme Art Association's Second Century Capital Campaign launched to bring the historic building back to life. Generous contributions have put the Association close to the $364,000 goal, and the progress of the project has been amazing. "Just as the original artists raised money to open the Lyme Art Association's doors, we, too, find ourselves working to ensure that our historic landmark gallery will thrive for the next 100 years," said Kathy Simmons, Board President of the Association. As of mid February, generous donations have brought the Association to within $68,292 of their $364,000 goal. Restoring this building is important for so many reasons. Today the Lyme Art Association continues its commitment to advance the cause of representational fine art, while maintaining and preserving its historic building and galleries. It is a vibrant art center and gallery where professional and developing artists mount major exhibitions year-round - open to the public and free of charge. The Association also has a robust schedule of art classes, workshops and lectures. The landmark means a great deal to artists, those who appreciate art and, of course, the community.

The Lyme Art Association is open Wednesday through Sunday, from 10:00 am - 5:00 pm, and by appointment. The Lyme Art Association is located at 90 Lyme Street in Old Lyme, at the corner of Halls Road. Please call 860-434-7802 for more information, or visit www.lymeartassociation.org.

The Old Lyme Historical Society is taking another giant step forward in its renovation of the former Grange Building at 55 Lyme Street. The Board has signed a contract to install a lift which will connect the Archives and Reading Room on the lower level with the Main hall on the first floor. We continue to be grateful for the hands-on work of our Board members who serve on the Tuesday Morning Work Crew. They are presently completing pre-installation tasks and expect all this to be finished by late spring.

Anyone wishing to support the Lift Fund Drive may send a check to The Society at Box 352, Old Lyme, CT 06371. Potential donors can be reassured that 100% of their contribution goes to make the Historical Society accessible to the public. It is important to note that the costs of this project are greatly reduced because of volunteer labor provided by the Board. Your Historical Society is on the move!

German Wines

Germany is the fourth largest wine growing country in Europe. Even though it is a big grower of grapes, it is small in comparison to the other products that are grown there. Most of the high quality wines are grown on steep slopes above the Rhine river. These vineyards need to be handpicked, which takes many extra hours. Where there are smaller portions of flat land, machines are used for harvesting.

In the 80s Liebfraumilch was one of the largest white wines exported, which brought a lot of new people into drinking wine due to the sweetness. The most popular grapes now are Riesling, Muller-Thugau, and Silvaner.

One of the most difficult things about German wines is understanding the label. One item that is always on the label is the region. There are thirteen winemaking regions in Germany. The four major wine regions are Mosel, Pfalz, Reingau, Rheinhessen.

You might also see words like Kabinett, Spatlese, Auslese, Trocken, Beerenauslese, Trockenbeerenauslese, and Eiswein. Trocken meaning dry, in a Riesling you get a dry crisp wine if this term is on the label. Kabinett is picked during normal harvest which leads to a semi dry or dry wine. Spatlese means picked late, hence these wine are a little sweeter. Auslese is a process that the fullest ripe grapes are picked, which results in a fuller, slightly sweeter wine. With the Beerenauslese method the best grapes are hand picked to produce a juicy sweeter wine of slightly better quality. Trockenbeerenauslese is similar to that of Beerenauslese but the grapes are dried so they become raisiny and hence produces a sweeter and more intense wine, which is usually expensive.

Lastly, one other type of wine is Eiswein. This is a process of freezing the grapes on the vine, they are then pressed while they are frozen which makes for a concentrated wine with sweet fruit, also classified as a dessert wine.

Hopefully this will give you a better understanding of German wines and make it easier to pick out the wine you desire from Germany. With the variety of the wine making processes you can purchase a Riesling from bone dry to intensely sweet. Have fun with your next selection of German wines, as they will prove to be a tasty accompaniment to the upcoming holidays.

Filters vs. Distortions, Where is the Line?

The changes we make to our Instagram pictures are called filters. I like to call them distortions. Distortion is defined as “the action of giving a misleading account or impression.” Social media allows, far too easily, young children and teens to access distorted views and expectations of the world and people around them. When we close the social media and enter back in the “real world” it is easy for us to blend the two worlds and carry those distortions with us. The social media might close, but the residual anxiety, depression, and negative view of self remains open, and the distorted lens we look through remains clear. How can we protect ourselves from the potential dangers of social media and compete with the increasing need and convenience of technology? How can we tell when it is time to unplug and connect as humans, not to WiFi? Talk with your loved ones if you are noticing behavioral or emotional changes that concern you, and recognize when you need to seek professional support and guidance to take back control in your real world. De-filter, De-stress, and Re-ignite your happiness.

The Ruth Ann Heller Music Foundation

The Ruth Ann Heller Music Foundation recently awarded 26 scholarships to instrumental students participating in Lyme-Old Middle and High Schools band programs.

The 501(c)(3) non-profit foundation was formed in 1999 after the retirement of Ruth Ann (King) Heller who had a wonderful and long-lasting impact on the District's band program that continues to thrive today under the dedicated and talented efforts of Jay Wilson and Carrie Wind. Scholarships are exclusively for private lessons and are paid directly to student-selected teachers. One-on-one instruction time provides a valuable opportunity for the students to develop their musical skills and subsequently enhance the quality of the band performances. This year we are pleased to highlight two LOLHS alumni and scholarship awardees and the effect music has had on their lives.

Laura (Neville) Lima de Souza earned a B.S. in Music Education from Western Connecticut State University and a Masters in Flute Performance from New York University where she studied with Dr. Brad Garner. Laura served as Band President in high school and developed meaningful, long-lasting relationships because of music. Laura shared with us, "As a recipient of the RAHMF scholarship for private lessons, I did not know how much of an continued on page 42 impact those lessons and my studies would have on my life today. I studied with the principal flutist of the Coast Guard Band. She was incredible and broadened my understanding of what it means to be a professional in the music industry and not just as a performer. Having the opportunity to study with someone that could offer me this advice and guidance was invaluable." Laura taught middle school band for three years in Connecticut where her ensembles received high accolades. Upon graduating from NYU, Laura performed regularly with her woodwind quintet and worked in the booking department at Columbia Artists Management Inc. She is currently working for the Eastman School of Music managing events and stewardship needs for its Advancement Office. Laura is active in the Rochester music scene, still teaches flute workshops and is pursuing an MBA at the University of Rochester's Simon School of Business.

Mark Neville currently works as a retail store manager and sales team leader at New York & Co.. He is a classically trained trombonist who teaches privately and gigs as a freelance musician throughout Southern Connecticut and the New York City area. He actively performs with local big bands and musicals. "I had the honor of studying trombone with James Jackson from the Coast Guard Band and Jeffrey Gray and Harold Reynolds at Ithaca College. I started studying trombone with James Jackson, the principal euphonium player for the Coast Guard Band, in 8th grade. He gave me the foundation I needed to be a professional trombonist; my sound concept and technique is based on his teachings. He pushed me to be my best and I have taken that with me throughout my college studies and adult life. If it weren't for my lessons in high school, I wouldn't be where I am today. I will always have music in my life and will always share my passion with others. Thank you to the Ruth Ann Heller Music Foundation for the opportunities I had that came out of my lessons in high school."

82nd Annual White Elephant Sale

MARK YOUR CALENDAR FOR 82ND ANNUAL WHITE ELEPHANT SALE!

Preparations are already well in hand for the perennially popular White Elephant Sale (WES) hosted by the Ladies Benevolent Society of the First Congregational Church of Old Lyme.

For those new to the town or folk who have never participated, this 81st annual sale is one of the main events on both the town and church calendars. It all starts with the intake period when you can drop off unwanted items at the church from your house - perhaps your basement, attic or closets - or yard.

Garage, tag and rummage sales may be everyday affairs, but few, if any, can match the size and color of this one. The sale items are organized into some 20 departments that fill the church buildings as well as every available space on the lawn. The WES has grown so large that it has become a true "community event" since many of the donations are from non-church members and quite a number of volunteers are also from outside the church.

The sale raises a significant amount of money for missions and good works both locally and throughout the world. Some of the beneficiaries include food pantries, health organizations, family support centers, children's programs, literacy volunteers, affordable housing, and disaster relief worldwide.

Mark your calendars now for the dates of this year's sale. Intake begins on Thursday, June 28, and runs daily from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm through Saturday, June 30. Then there is a break for the July 4th holiday and then intake restarts Thursday, July 5, and continues through Saturday, July 7.

The sale itself will be held on Friday, July 13, from 9:00 am to 2:00 pm and Saturday, July 14, from 8:00 am to 12:00 pm. Most departments offer items at half-price on the second day.

For more information about the sale or if you would like to volunteer to help in any capacity, whether with intake, the sale itself, or clean-up, call the church office at: 860-434-8686 or visit www.fccol.org. See you at The Sale!
