Essex Friends & Neighbors,

The Connecticut Office of Tourism again conducted its Still Revolutionary fan-favorite town campaign. This social media program allows people to vote for the Connecticut town "that they think most embodies the spirit of the state's brand, Connecticut still revolutionary - a haven for original ideas and innovation that offers a dynamic blend of experiences." Participants had the opportunity to vote for their favorite business, destination or attraction within that town as well. Voting ended on July 25, let's hope that Essex fared as well as it deserves to.

The Town of Essex Transfer Station & Recycling Center has new procedures and requirements that we would like our residents to be aware of. Effective October 1, 2014 annual stickers or pre-paid punch cards will be required for fee based services. Additionally, no cash will be accepted at the Transfer Station, only check, debit and credit cards may be used for payment. The annual stickers and punch cards will be available for purchase at the Town Clerk's office, punch cards may also be purchased at the transfer station. Please see our Transfer Station brochure on our website or at the Town Hall for full information, or you may call 860-767-1926.

Although the Town of Essex does not have an ordinance on the hours of operation in which a contractor or landscaper may work at a property in our community. We would expect such hours to be 7am-5pm on weekdays with more limited work on the weekends. We all rely on our residents to be neighborly and considerate by ensuring that construction, and the use of power tools and landscaping equipment be used only during these times. A few concerns on this have been brought to my attention lately and just a use of common sense and common courtesy towards your neighbors should alleviate any problems and would be much appreciated by me and your neighbors.

Selectwoman Stacia Libby is chairing a committee who will oversee the work related to the Main Street Investment Fund (MSIF) grant awarded to the Village of Ivoryton. The project serves to enhance a shared "Village Center" around Main, Ivory and Summit Streets in Ivoryton. The grant funds will be used for intersection improvements at Summit Street and Main Street; installing new cross walks, renovating existing cross-walks, and other improvements. Proposals were submitted in June for the survey and design work.

Selectman Bruce Glowac is leading a capital committee focus group for the Town as we are examining a number of capital projects that may go out to bond. The Capital Improvement Project/Building Committee will soon present a needs based assessment of its findings to the Board of Selectman. Thank you to Bruce for his efforts leading these initiatives. Our most pressing needs examined thus far include repairs to the school and Town Hall buildings, as well as necessary bridge repairs. The Town is already moving ahead on the Rehabilitation of the Walnut Street Bridge over the Falls River in Ivoryton.

At the time of this writing, the Essex Civic Campus Enhancement Project is nearing completion as final work on the tennis court, site landscaping, and grounds remediation continues and is expected to be completed in the next few weeks. We are thrilled with the final product that this project, funded largely by a state grant, was able to provide and have seen many ways in which it has been a success already for our community. The playground has been greatly used and enjoyed, and our new parking lots have been successful in supporting Town-wide events. A ribbon cutting ceremony is planned for September 10, please stay tuned for more details.

I would like to thank all the Essex residents and voters who participated in our annual budget process. A $23,056,963 combined town and schools budget plan for 2014-2015 was approved by the voters at the annual budget meeting. The total spending package, which is up by 1.64 percent from the current total, includes a $7,202,161 town government budget, a $7,742,313 appropriation for Essex Elementary School, and the Town's $8,112,489 share of the Region 4 education budget. The Board of Finance set a mill rate of 20.99 to fund the fiscal year 2014-2015 budget.

We are now again in hurricane season. Listed as June 1 through November 30, these dates conventionally are period each year when most tropical cyclones form in the Atlantic basin, though the formation of such storms is possible at any time. Simply put, we should all be informed, make a plan, build a kit, and prepare for during and after storms. Town staff and officials, led by Emergency Management director Bill Buckridge, recently participated in a statewide drill as the Town prepares its Emergency Operations Center. An emergency kit

Village of Ivoryton Named to The National Register Of Historic Places

The National Parks Service has recently announced that it has added the Village of Ivoryton to the National Register of Historic Places. According to the National Parks Service website, "The National Register of Historic Places is the official list of the Nation's historic places worthy of preservation. Authorized by the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966, the National Park Service's National Register of Historic Places is part of a national program to coordinate and support public and private efforts to identify, evaluate, and protect America's historic and archeological resources." Ivoryton is the first of Essex's historic Villages to be added to the National Register.

Ivoryton resident and Town Selectman Stacia Libby noted that "This is another important step for our Village. This recognition brings the deep and important history of Ivoryton full-circle to the revitalization that we see happening today."

The process for adding Ivoryton to the National Register began several years ago with a Subcommittee of the Essex Planning Commission. The Planning Commission had been concerned about the potential loss of architectural character and heritage throughout Essex, and created a Subcommittee to study this topic, as well as making recommendations about preserving and safeguarding the Town's historic character.

One of the first steps taken through the Subcommittee was to survey and document representative historic buildings in each of the three Villages of Essex, Centerbrook, and Ivoryton. This survey, funded through the State Historic Preservation Office, resulted in an in-depth documentation of nearly 100 structures across the Town. The extensive work of former Town Historian Don Malcarne was critical to this documentation.

The architectural historian who conducted the survey, Phil Esser of Epsilon Systems, was very impressed with the wealth of architectural gems in Ivoryton, and called it one of the best-preserved “company towns” from the Industrial era in New England that he’d ever seen. With his recommendations, the Subcommittee decided to proceed with a full analysis and nomination of the Village of Ivoryton to the National Register.

This nomination involved an extensive survey and documentation of structures throughout Ivoryton, analysis of their contribution to the architectural heritage and history of the Village, and the determination of the appropriate boundaries of the proposed historic district. The area deemed “contributing” to the National Register area is roughly bounded by Main Street, North Main Street, Oak Street, Blake Street, Summit Street, Park Road, and Comstock Avenue. In total, over three hundred structures were examined, with over 230 deemed to be “contributing” to the unique history of the Village – a remarkably high number in such a compact area.

In naming Ivoryton to the National Register, the Parks Service quoted from the nomination, which stated:

“The Ivoryton Historic District is significant under Criteria A, B, and C at the state and local levels as a well-preserved example of a nineteenth-century company town built by Comstock, Cheney, & Co., an ivory import and manufacturing business established in the 1860s by Ivoryton native Samuel Merritt Comstock and partner George A. Cheney. Its resources illustrate important contributions to the development of the ivory industry in the United States as well as the socio-economic phenomenon of the “company town” in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. At the local level, the district represents Connecticut River Valley industry in the late nineteenth century as well as the brief period of increased worker immigration from Sweden, Germany, Italy, and Poland to Connecticut up until the start of World War I, illustrated by segregated worker housing in various locations throughout Ivoryton. The two largest American ivory manufacturers, Comstock, Cheney, & Co. and Pratt, Read & Co., were located just a few miles away from one another along the Connecticut River, and commanded a monopoly on all ivory production in the United States. Between 1860 and 1938, “Ivoryton” (unique among American town names) became a self-sufficient industrial center that employed and housed up to 600 workers, many of them immigrants, at its height. The historic district consists of early Colonial structures representing the agrarian village before its industrial transformation, mid - to late-nineteenth-century ivory processing and manufacturing buildings, high-style Victorian homes for company executives, modest vernacular homes and tenements for factory workers, and public buildings such as churches, a post office, company store, library, and a town meeting hall. Although some of the factory buildings have been demolished, the industry-defining bleach houses are gone, many houses have been remodeled, and the village itself sustained damage in a flood in 1982. Ivoryton's historic character remains intact as an example of a planned community not unlike more formalized "company towns" in an industry unique to the Connecticut River Valley. The period of significance ranges from the construction of earliest known extant building (Joseph Parker Homestead; ca. 1719) to the divestment of company-owned housing in 1938."

The addition of the Village of Ivoryton to the National Register represents a tribute to the excellent historic character and the outstanding contributions that Ivoryton made to the Industrial era in New England. It is entirely an honorary designation that carries no regulatory burden. National Register listing places carries no obligations on private property owners. There are no restrictions on the use, treatment, transfer, or disposition of private property. On the contrary, the designation of the Village opens up potential opportunities for property owners to receive funding assistance for renovations or restorations to buildings that would preserve or enhance the historic character of the Village. Both Federal and State Historic Tax Credit programs are in place to provide a substantial cost-share for construction expenses. More information on these tax programs, as well as the National Register itself, can be found on the National Parks Service website, <http://www.nps.gov/nr/>.

The Essex Planning Commission, based on recommendations of the Subcommittee that initiated this process, will be considering similar studies and potential nominations for the Villages of Centerbrook and Essex. Discussion and decisions on these goals will be included as part of the Commission's ongoing update of the comprehensive Essex Plan of Conservation & Development. More information on that process can be obtained by visiting the Town's website at <http://www.essexct.gov/planning/> or contacting John Guskowski, the Town Planner at planner@essexct.gov.

SECOND PLACE ADVOCATE ★ BEST ★ OF NEW HAVEN READERS POLL 2011

New Payment Options at the Essex Transfer Station & Recycling Center

Effective October 1, 2014, the Essex Transfer Station & Recycling Center will implement new payment options for residents to dispose of their household trash. Cash will no longer be accepted at the Transfer Station so residents who bring their household waste to the transfer station must use alternate payment methods to dispose of their household waste.

Option 1: Residents can purchase an annual sticker which is affixed to the windshield of their car. This allows residents to bring their household trash to the usual trash compactor and eliminates the $3 per bag cash payment they were previously required to put into the cash collection box.

Option 2: Residents can purchase a punch card which allows them to bring 10 household trash bags to the usual trash compactor and eliminates the $3 per bag cash payment they were previously required to put into the cash collection box.

Option 3: Residents can pay by check, debit or credit card to bring their household trash to the usual trash compactor and eliminates the $3 per bag cash payment they were previously required to put into the cash collection box.

Annual stickers and punch cards are available for purchase at the Town Clerk's Office in the Essex Town Hall using Cash or Check. The annual stickers are $125 for residents and $75 for senior residents (65 years old or over). The sticker must be affixed to the vehicle's windshield and residents are given 2 stickers per household. Punch cards are $25 per card and valid for 10 trash bags each. Proof of residency is required to purchase the annual sticker and punch cards.

Punch cards are available for purchase at the Essex Transfer Station using Check, Debit or Credit Card only. No cash is accepted at the transfer station. Punch cards are $25 per card and valid for 10 trash bags each. Proof of residency is required to purchase the punch card.

Eliminating the cash transactions at the transfer station achieves several goals. It streamlines resident's time through the transfer station as they no longer have to bring exact change for the cash collection box or wait for change to be made from larger denomination bills. It also reduces the time consuming accounting and cash verification process for employees at both the transfer station and town hall.

For additional information, please see the new Transfer Station & Recycling Center brochure which is on the town hall website or call the town hall at 860-767-4340.

Essex Historical Society

What has EHS been up to lately? At the end of May, EHS hosted eighty fourth-grade students from Essex Elementary School for tours of Pratt House and Hill's Academy. Archival Angels and Docents were on hand to show the children artifacts from long ago and to explain how life was for children at the time. Hill's Academy houses the EHS archives and serves as a physical reminder of schooling in the 1800s. For the fourth graders to be so close to the children that once studied within the walls of Hill's Academy, it really emphasized the differences between past and present and how much has changed, but not only in terms of schooling. The students were able to use some of the non-technologically advanced toys that children played with in the past, which was a favorite for some. Surprisingly, other children found the antique tools to be their favorite – even after they learned that they would have been expected to use the tools on a daily basis!

At Pratt House, the students took the tour of the home and grounds. Docents explained what daily life in the 1700s and 1800s was for children of the same age and what their role would be within the home. Chores such as cooking, cleaning and tending to the crops in addition to studies were not beyond expectation. Girls also spent hours painstakingly stitching neat letters and script in their samplers. One of these elaborately sewn fabrics is on display at Pratt House, intricately embroidered by an eleven year old girl – only slightly older than the touring students themselves. Explaining what a lack of plumbing meant in those days was made easier by showing the students the four-seat outhouse, much to their horror. In the upstairs of the barn, the 1800s fully-functioning loom was set up for use for weaving textiles, and the children were able to try their hand at working the contraption.

EHS is grateful for the opportunity to expose modern day kids to tangible reminders of days past and to help keep the history of our town alive. Pratt House is free and open to the public every weekend through September. Please visit and let our docents take you back in time.

Sunday, June 22, 2014 EHS held its Annual Strawberry Social on the grounds of Pratt House. Fortunately the day held beautiful weather which meant dining on strawberry shortcake outside, in the shade of leafy trees. The Sailing Masters, dressed in their historical clothing, marched the distance from the Town Hall to Pratt House, all the while playing their perfectly-timed period music. Once at the Pratt House, the Sailing Masters serenaded the picnickers, as well as drew in passers-by! Several younger EHS volunteers organized olde-time games for children to play, including a hoop toss and egg relay races. With the

At the Strawberry Social, EHS presented the Fourth Annual Preservation Award. Caroline Timmerman accepted the award for the 2014 winner, the Essex Firehouse, Company 1. Known as the "Original Firehouse," the building was originally constructed in 1882 and was used until 1999 when the new Essex Fire Headquarters was completed. The Original Firehouse was restored and is now home to a collection of antiques and memorabilia of the Essex Fire Engine Company.

For 60 years, EHS has strived to promote awareness and understanding of the people, places and events that have shaped the history of Essex. If you would like to learn more about EHS and perhaps, support or become a member of the organization, please visit our website at www.essexhistory.org.

Current and Upcoming Exhibits at Spectrum Gallery

Spectrum Gallery and Artisans Store of Centerbrook, Connecticut presents two summer exhibitions, All Natural and Out of the Box. All Natural, which closes August 10, presents the work of fine artists who incorporate natural materials into their art, artisans who use nature's imagery, and fine art photographers presenting unique views of the natural world. This current Spectrum Gallery exhibit, located at 61 Main Street, Centerbrook, includes abstract and figurative painters; an installation artist who uses printmaking and encaustic; and mixed media artists, sculptors and fine artisans who use a variety of natural substances.

Out of the Box, running August 22 through September 28, presents fine artists who "break out" of the rectangular canvas, sculpt unique objects or shoot photographs of unexpected subjects. These include a painter who "folds" his canvases to work with the illusion of spatial depth within the confines of a two-dimensional surface, and other artists and fine artisans who use a variety of mediums to create mixed media and sculptural pieces.

Spectrum Gallery and Store is open Wednesday-Saturday (11 am-6 pm) and Sunday (11 am-5 pm). The Gallery is an expansion of the non-profit arts organization Arts Center Killingworth which offers classes, workshops, camps, and musical events for all ages. In collaboration with Spectrum, the Arts Center's mission is to provide opportunities for emerging and established artists to display and sell their work. For information about Spectrum, call (860) 767-0742 and visit www.spectrumartgallery.org. CT Clean Energy Options Program-Summer 2014 Update

Under the Clean Energy Communities program, Essex signed a pledge to reduce municipal building energy consumption by 20 percent by 2018, and to attain 20 percent of municipal electricity from renewable sources by 2018. Through community-wide participation in energy-saving and renewable energy programs, including resident and business participation, the community receives points toward rewards. For every 100 points earned through participation in energy efficiency programs, the town is eligible to receive a Bright Idea Grant of $5,000 that can be used toward a community-selected energy-saving project. Clean Energy programs that Essex is participating in include:

1. Solarize CT. Essex was recently chosen as one of ten communities to join the Solarize CT program (www.solarizect.com), which is sponsored by the Clean Energy Finance and Investment Authority, Smartpower and the Town of Essex. Solarize CT is a program designed to encourage the adoption of residential solar photovoltaic (PV) systems by deploying a coordinated education, marketing and outreach effort, combined with a tiered pricing structure that provides increased savings to homeowners as more people in one community go solar. The program will offer a variety of financial options to purchase or lease solar equipment.

The Solarize CT program is based on a proven residential aggregation model designed to bring down the cost of solar PV when residents sign up for a pre-selected installer's offering. During the twenty week signup period, the more residents who sign up to install solar, the greater the cost reduction for everyone who participates. And because the installer, the technology and the exact price of PV are provided upfront, it is much easier for residents to make the decision to go solar. Sunlight Solar Energy, has been chosen as the installer for Essex in the Solarize CT Program. Given the depth of their experience in the solar industry, the variety of their equipment options and the good recommendations of Essex homeowners who already have solar arrays designed and installed by Sunlight Solar, we are confident that this will be a great experience for all. Sunlight Solar's Connecticut base is in New Haven. www.sunlightsolar.com.

Some of the advantages of going solar include:

- Saving money on your electric bill and helping to protect against future rate increases.
- Reducing household carbon dioxide emissions.
- Qualifying for federal and state tax credits.
- Increasing the diversity of our country's energy resources and helping to reduce our dependence on foreign fossil fuels.

Gov. Malloy: Atlantic Hurricane Season Begins Reminds Residents to be Prepared

With the 2014 Atlantic Hurricane Season beginning June 1, Governor Dannel P. Malloy today is reminding Connecticut residents to be prepared. The Atlantic hurricane season runs from June 1 to November 30, with the principal threat period for Connecticut occurring between mid-August and mid-October.

"Every home should have a basic emergency plan that can be used for any emergency," said Governor Malloy. "I urge residents to know what potential risks your community and neighborhood may face, such as storm surge, flooding, road or bridge closures."

Department of Emergency Services and Public Protection Commissioner Dora B. Schriro said, "I recommend that all Connecticut residents take three simple preparedness steps now: Get a kit, make a plan, and stay informed. Carefully monitor weather reports and promptly follow instructions from public safety officials if a storm approaches."

Governor Malloy offers the following preparedness tips:

Recommended Items to Include in a Basic Emergency Supply Kit

- One gallon of water per person per day for at least three days, for drinking and sanitation
- At least a three-day supply of non-perishable food
- Battery-powered or hand crank radio and a NOAA Weather Radio with tone alert and extra batteries for both
- Flashlight and extra batteries
- First aid kit
- A whistle to signal for help

- Moist towelettes, garbage bags and plastic ties for personal sanitation
- Wrench or pliers to turn off utilities
- A manual can opener for food (if kit contains canned food)
- Local maps
- Cell phone with chargers, inverter or solar charger

Family Emergency Plan

- Identify an out-of-town contact. It may be easier to make a long-distance phone call than to call across town, so an out-of-town contact may be in a better position to communicate among separated family members
- Be sure every member of your family knows the phone number and has a cell phone, coins, or a prepaid phone card to call the emergency contact. If you have a cell phone, program that person(s) as "ICE" (In Case of Emergency) in your phone. If you are in an accident, emergency personnel will often check your ICE listings in order to get a hold of someone you know. Make sure to tell your family and friends that you've listed them as emergency contacts
- Teach family members how to use text messaging. Text messages can often get around network disruptions when a phone call might not be able to get through
- Subscribe to alert services. Go to www.ct.gov/ctalert to register for emergency alerts.

Summer Cocktails

With summer in full swing, nothing beats the heat better than a well crafted cocktail. With all of the quality spirits and liqueurs available it is now easier than ever to create fantastic drinks at home. This is also a good time to mention that when it comes to cocktails it is a great practice to get out of the mind set that because you are mixing your spirit, something cheap is the best way to go. Now with this being said, you do not have to purchase the most expensive, but a nice middle of the road, great tasting liquor or mixer. This will really bring your drink to life.

First lets start simple, some of the easiest cocktails to make at home are liquor mixed with "something else," whether that be a soda, tonic, or a bar juice. Some of our favorites come from Fever Tree, who make fantastic tonic and soda waters, some of which are infused with botanicals, which really add a little something extra to your drink. The Mediterranean Tonic Water has a unique flavor that mixes well with gin or vodka. Also the RIPE line of bar juices, made here in Connecticut, are some of the best. These fresh made juices are never frozen, heated or have had any preservatives added to them. All of them are delicious, but the Agave Margarita and San Marzano Bloody Mary Mix are my favorites.

Now lets not forget about liqueurs. These slightly less alcoholic, but highly-flavored spirits can really add that extra punch to your cocktail. One such liqueur I have been playing with quite a bit lately is Ancho Reyes Chili Liqueur. This smoky, slightly spicy spirit really adds a bit of depth and an unexpected little kick to any drink you add it to.

So the next time you feel like having a cocktail, do not be afraid to experiment, or just try something new. You never know, a new favorite drink could be on the horizon!

Community Classes at Children's Tree Montessori School

"Education begins at birth" – Dr. Maria Montessori.

The Children's Tree Montessori School will be opening a Toddler and Parent Infant program this fall for children 6 weeks – 36 months old.

The first three years of life are the most fundamental in the development of human beings and their potential. The infant's physical development is phenomenal and inspires our care and attention.

The class is set in a Nido, (meaning "nest" in Italian), and each class provides a unique opportunity to engage with your child, as they exercise their independence by exploring a specially prepared environment. Furniture and materials in the room are carefully chosen and designed to aid in the development of movement and coordination, language and cognitive development. The Community is designed to support parents in the important role as your child's first teacher. The role of the parent in this class is to observe, support, and encourage the natural development of your child.

The class is facilitated by an experienced Montessori teacher who serves as a guide and model for parents and children as they explore the environment, offering practical examples of how to follow through with learning experiences at home.

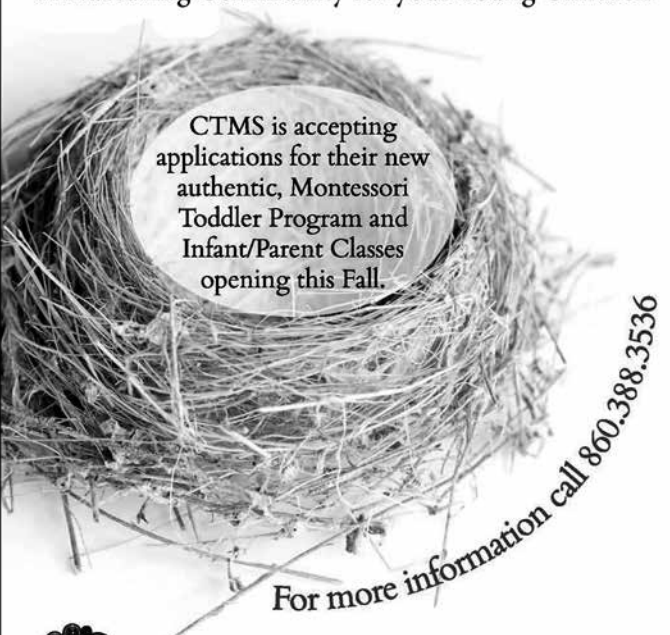

This class will also deepen your understanding of Montessori philosophy and its application in the home setting. Through both interaction and observation, parents and caregivers gain valuable insight regarding their infant's path of development. The class serves as a forum for parents to share and exchange information with each other. Each week will feature an overview and discussion of a topic pertaining to infant development and whole child parenting.

CTMS is a non-profit 501(c)(3). We welcome and consider all applications without regard to race, religion, ethnic, or nationality.

Bartlett Tree Experts Donates Red Maple

Dan Estey (of Bartlett Tree Experts) and Augie Pampel put the finishing touches on the "Autumn Blaze" Red Maple which Bartlett Tree Experts generously donated and planted this spring at 80 Dennison Road in Essex. Dan Estey said that this is one of several trees that Bartlett has donated to the Essex Tree Committee in its ongoing effort to help beautify Essex's streets.

The Autumn Blaze (acer fremanii) is a hybrid of the red maple (acer rubrum) and the silver maple (acer saccharinum). It is a fast growing maple, disease and pest resistant and prized for its hardiness and brilliant color. Growing 3 feet a year, it eventually reaches a height of 60 feet and a width of 40 feet. It develops an oval canopy that provides perfect symmetry. The leaves emerge with a slight reddish tint that deepens to an orange red in the fall. A spectacular sight.

Augie Pampel thanked Dan Estey both for this splendid donation and for Bartlett's continued support.

The Essex Tree Committee is charged with the responsibility of finding appropriate street sites for new and/or replacement trees in Essex. To discuss the possibility of a site or to donate a tree, please contact Augie Pampel at augiepampel@att.net.

Ivoryton Playhouse

As another summer rolls in to our little town, I often think of summers past, when Ivoryton was filled with visitors flocking to see the stars they had only before seen on the big screen. Though we don't have quite as many big stars as they had back then, we are certainly not short on talent – I know that pretty soon we are going to see more than a few of these young actors in Ivoryton this summer make their name on stage or screen.

And we are certainly not short on summer visitors, as a trip to Ivoryton any evening or matinee day will prove. Summer opened for us with sold-out shows of Fingers & Toes, a new musical featuring some of the best tap dancing ever seen on our stage, and burst into full bloom with the high energy musical, All Shook Up. Inspired by and featuring the songs of Elvis Presley, this lip-curling, hip-swiveling musical fantasy had audiences jumpin' out of their blue suede shoes!

In the dog days of summer, the coolest place to be (in more ways than one!) is the Ivoryton Playhouse where we will be opening one of Broadway's biggest hits, the multi-Tony Award winning La Cage Aux Folles (Aug. 6 - Aug. 31). This wild and warmhearted farce about the importance of nonconformity and being true to oneself is sure to be a highlight of our summer season.

Summer may wind down in September, but Ivoryton will be exploding with excitement as we host a World Premiere event. Comedy is Hard! (Sept. 23 - Oct. 12) is a brand new play written by Mike Reiss, celebrated writer of The Simpsons and the critically acclaimed I'm Connecticut – a highlight of our 2013 season. I am thrilled to be welcoming Micky Dolenz (The Monkees) and Joyce DeWitt (Three's Company) to the Ivoryton stage who will originate the roles for the two leads in this hilarious and bittersweet play. Set in a home for retired actors, this play tells the story of the relationship - and rivalry - between a stand-up comedian and a classical actress, proving that laughter and friendship never grow old.

And finally, our 2014 season closes with Say Goodnight, Gracie (Oct. 29 - Nov. 16) – a heart-warming play that celebrates

Step Back Into the Great Gatsby Era

On Saturday, August 16th, the Essex Auxiliary of Child & Family Agency of Southeastern Connecticut will host a Great Gatsby Party that will transport you to the dining, dancing, dress and diversions of the Roaring 20s. At the newly restored Croft Mansion on Foxboro Point in Essex, you'll start at 6:30 pm with cocktails and croquet on a gorgeous lawn with sweeping views of the Connecticut River and an iconic windmill. Accompanied by the sounds of a period Jazz band, professional dancers will not only entertain you, but they'll also give you a Charleston lesson! Carving stations, champagne and other savories will sustain you while one of the area's top DJ's keeps you moving to a more contemporary beat from 8 pm to 11 pm. Period attire is suggested, but not required. Tickets are $110 per person. Come with a group! If you assemble 10 people for a reserved table, you can get a group discount off of the individual ticket price. All proceeds will benefit the services and capital projects of Child & Family Agency of Southeastern Connecticut which offers critical services for the unmet needs of families and children lacking physical, emotional and intellectual care. Your ticket purchase will help continue to support 17,000 children and families in our area. Purchase your tickets by visiting the following website: www.childandfamilyagency.org.
